Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Idaho:

SECTION 1. That Title 54, Idaho Code, be, and the same is hereby amended by the addition thereto of a NEW CHAPTER, to be known and designated as Chapter 40, Title 54, Idaho Code, and to read as follows:

CHAPTER 40 PSYCHOSOCIAL REHABILITATION SPECIALIST

54-4001. LEGISLATIVE INTENT. The practice of community-based psychosocial rehabilitation services in this state is hereby declared to affect the public health, safety and welfare, and be subject to regulation and control in the public interest. Recognizing that: the delivery of community-based psychosocial rehabilitation services involves the application of a special knowledge of social learning theory, cognitive science, life-span developmental theory and knowledge of psychosocial rehabilitation principles; (b) the design and oversight of such psychosocial rehabilitation must be based on academic research and evidence based practices which include consumers as well as practitioners (c) the practice of psychosocial rehabilitation as decision makers; must convey to consumers a sense of hope and respect, be culturally sensitive, recognize and build on strengths so that to the full extent possible, consumers can exercise their rights of citizenship, make social, occupational, educational, residential, intellectual, spiritual and financial decisions, enabling them to accept the responsibilities and opportunities that come with being a member of a community; and (d) making mental health services readily accessible to all, utilizing natural supports within communities and promoting physical health and wellness may be beneficial both to the outcome of rehabilitation, to the fiscal concerns of the state and to the lives of those receiving services, it is the legislative intent and purpose of this chapter to protect the public by setting standards of qualification, education, training and experience and professional competence for those who engage in the practice of community-based psychosocial rehabilitation services.

54-4002. DEFINITIONS. In this chapter:

- (1) "Board" means the state board of psychosocial rehabilitation specialist examiners.
- (2) "Candidate in good standing" means an individual who holds a limited permit issued by the board, is actively pursuing completion of the community-based psychosocial rehabilitation services training requirements and is in compliance with all required timelines, guidelines and ethical standards as set forth in this chapter or determined by the board and may be designated as a candidate in good standing (PSRC).
- (3) "Community-based" means in the community or communities at large where the participant lives or interacts. Community-based services are not to include services provided in public correctional institutions.
- (4) "Community-based psychosocial rehabilitation services" means a range of social interactions, psycho-educational, occupational and behavioral interventions that are performed in a community-based setting. The focus of these interventions is to increase the mental well-being, role performance and community functioning of adults with serious and persistent mental illness (SPMI) and to enhance their recovery. For children with serious emotional disturbances (SED), services are focused on increasing resiliency and developing skills that they would have appropriately developed had they not developed SED. Community-based psychosocial rehabilitation services includes services aimed at long-term recovery, resiliency and self-sufficiency and is focused on helping individuals develop skills needed to increase their capacity to be successful and satisfied in the living, working, learning and social environments.
- (5) "Community-based psychosocial rehabilitation services training requirements" means the examination, supervised practice and continuing education requirements set forth in section 54-4009(2), Idaho Code.
- (6) "Lay member" means an individual who is not employed in any mental health field, married to any mental health professional or the owner or partial owner of any mental health facility.
- (7) "Licensed psychosocial rehabilitation specialist" or "LPSRS" means any individual who is licensed under this chapter to practice community-based psychosocial rehabilitation services as set forth in this chapter and within the scope of practice set forth in this chapter. An individual who meets the requirements of this subsection may be designated as a licensed psychosocial rehabilitation specialist or LPSRS.
- (8) "Limited permit" means the permit granted by the board to an individual who meets the educational requirements for licensure pursuant to section 54-4009(1), Idaho Code, after that individual has submitted a board-approved application. A limited permit allows that individual to provide community-based psychosocial rehabilitation services subject to supervised practice while the individual completes the requirements pursuant to section 54-4009, Idaho Code.

- (9) "Psychotherapy" means treatment methods using a specialized, formal interaction between a master's level or above licensed mental health professional and an individual, couple, family or group in which a therapeutic relationship is established, maintained or sustained to understand:
 - (a) Unconscious processes;

- (b) Intrapersonal, interpersonal and psychosocial dynamics; and
- (c) The diagnosis and treatment of mental, emotional and behavioral disorders, conditions and additions.
- (10) "Scope of practice" means the range of community-based psychosocial rehabilitation services as set forth in section 54-4006, Idaho Code, and performed in a community-based setting.
- (11) "State" means any state of the United States, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, the United States Virgin Islands and Guam; provided that "this state" means the state of Idaho.
- (12) "Supervised practice" means the delivery of community-based psychosocial rehabilitation services under the oversight and guidance of another professional who meets the qualifications as a supervisor and who exercises authority over the supervisee.
- (13) "Supervisor" means an individual who holds a minimum of a master's degree and a current license in a mental health related field or certification from the United States psychiatric rehabilitation association as a certified psychiatric rehabilitation specialist.
- 54-4003. STATE BOARD OF PSYCHOSOCIAL REHABILITATION SPECIALIST EXAMINERS. (1) There is hereby created in the bureau of occupational licenses the board of psychosocial rehabilitation specialist examiners. It shall be the duty of the board to administer the provisions of this chapter.
 - (2) The board shall consist of six (6) members.
 - (a) Effective July 1, 2010, initial appointments to the board shall be for the following terms:
 - (i) Two (2) members for a term ending in one (1) year;
 - (ii) Two (2) members for a term ending in two (2) years; and
 - (iii) Two (2) members for a term ending in three (3) years.
 - The initial six (6) members of the board shall consist of two (2) licensed mental health professionals holding a minimum of a master's degree, at least one (1) of whom shall hold a clinical endorsement in the member's field of practice, one (1) lay member and three (3) members currently active in the field of community-based mental health services, who shall be required to obtain licensure under this chapter by January 1, 2012, unless they hold a current license in a different mental health discipline.
 - (b) After the licensure requirement date of January 1, 2012, the members of the board shall consist of:
 - (i) Two (2) licensed mental health professionals holding a minimum of a master's degree, one (1) of whom shall hold a clinical endorsement in that member's field of practice;
 - (ii) One (1) lay member; and

- (iii) Three (3) members currently active in the field of community-based mental health services who are licensed pursuant to this chapter or hold a current license in a different mental health discipline.
- (3) Board members shall be appointed by the governor and shall serve at the pleasure of the governor. All terms, following the initial terms set forth in subsection (2)(a) of this section, shall be for a period of three (3) years. No board member shall serve more than two (2) consecutive terms. Whenever a vacancy occurs, the governor shall appoint a qualified person to fill the vacancy for the unexpired term after reviewing and considering nominations that have been submitted to him.
 - (4) Each member of the board shall:
 - (a) Be a resident of this state;

- (b) At the time of appointment, have been actively engaged in the field of mental health services for at least one (1) of the last three (3) years; and
- (c) Have at least five (5) years of experience in the practice of mental health services.
- (5) The board shall, within sixty (60) days after the effective date of this chapter, and annually thereafter, hold a meeting and elect a chairman and vice chairman from among its members. The chairman shall preside at all meetings of the board. If the chairman is unable to serve, an election by a majority vote of the board shall determine the person who will serve as chairman for that fiscal year. The board shall meet at such other times as deemed necessary and advisable by the chairman, or by a majority of its members, or by the governor. Notice of all meetings shall be given in the manner prescribed by law. A majority of the members of the board shall constitute a quorum.
- (6) Each member of the board shall be compensated as provided by section $59-509 \, (m)$, Idaho Code.
- 54-4004. POWERS AND DUTIES OF THE BOARD. The board shall have the following powers and duties:
- (1) Promulgate, adopt and amend rules to administer and carry out the provisions of this chapter and for the conduct of its affairs, provided that such rules shall be promulgated in accordance with the provisions of chapter 52, title 67, Idaho Code.
- (2) Receive applications for licensure, determine the qualifications of persons applying for licensure, provide licenses to applicants qualified pursuant to this chapter and renew, suspend, revoke, otherwise discipline and reinstate licenses.
 - (3) Establish and collect fees for:
 - (a) Examination of applicants;
 - (b) Licensure; and
 - (c) Renewal of licenses.
- (4) Maintain a list of the names and addresses of all persons holding a limited permit or licensed pursuant to this chapter.
- (5) Authorize, by written agreement, the bureau of occupational licenses to act as an agent for the board.

- (6) Prescribe by rule the minimum amount and kind of continuing education to be required for each licensee seeking renewal of a license pursuant to this chapter.
- (7) Seek input from appropriate academic institutions within this state in the formulation of examinations and training.
 - (8) Establish by rule an inactive license status.

- (9) Take such action as may be necessary to enforce the provisions of this chapter and to regulate the practice of community-based psychosocial rehabilitation services.
- (10) Investigate complaints against persons who are licensed pursuant to this chapter.
- 54-4005. EXEMPTIONS FROM CERTAIN LICENSING REQUIREMENTS -- NONAPPLICABILITY. (1) An individual with prior experience or certification and who meets the educational requirements set forth in section 54-4009(3), Idaho Code, shall be eligible for licensure as follows:
 - (a) An individual who currently holds certification as a psychosocial rehabilitation specialist or similar certification from the United States psychiatric rehabilitation association or similar nationally recognized psychiatric rehabilitation certification program shall be eligible for immediate licensure as a licensed psychosocial rehabilitation specialist upon application for licensure, proof of said certification and payment of required fees.
 - (b) An individual who is currently employed as a psychosocial rehabilitation specialist by an Idaho medicaid approved provider and, by July 1, 2010, has provided a minimum of two (2) years of community-based psychosocial rehabilitation services shall be immediately eligible to sit for the board-approved comprehensive examination and shall be eligible for licensure as a licensed psychosocial rehabilitation specialist upon passing said examination, proof of said employment, application for licensure and payment of required fees.
 - (c) An individual who is currently employed as a psychosocial rehabilitation specialist by an Idaho medicaid approved provider and, by July 1, 2010, has provided a minimum of one (1) and not more than two (2) years of community-based psychosocial rehabilitation services shall be considered a candidate in good standing (PRSC) and shall be eligible to apply for licensure as a licensed psychosocial rehabilitation specialist upon proof of:
 - (i) Said employment;
 - (ii) Completion of a minimum of an additional twenty (20) hours of psychosocial rehabilitation specific continuing education credits approved by the board;
 - (iii) A minimum of one (1) additional year of supervised practice consisting of no less than seven hundred fifty (750) hours of direct community-based psychosocial rehabilitation services; and (iv) Sitting for and scoring a passing grade as defined by the board, on the final, comprehensive examination approved by the board.

(2) Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to apply to the activities and services of licensed or credentialed members of other professions, such as physicians, psychologists, registered nurses, social workers, marriage and family counselors, licensed counselors or drug and alcohol counselors performing duties consistent with the laws of this state, their training and any code of ethics of their professions.

54-4006. SCOPE OF PRACTICE. (1) The scope of practice of community-based psychosocial rehabilitation services shall include:

- (a) Basic living skills development, including:
 - (i) Basic household management;
 - (ii) Basic nutrition, health, personal care and hygiene;

 - (iii) Apply for, sit for and complete with a passing grade, as defined by the board, a final, comprehensive examination approved by the board.
 - (c) If the candidate holding the limited permit fails to complete the training requirements in the mandated timelines, that person's permit shall be temporarily suspended for a period of not more than six (6) months during which time the person:

(i) May complete the remaining training requirements; but

- (ii) Shall not be eligible to provide community-based psychosocial rehabilitation services.
- (d) If the candidate holding the limited permit fails to complete the training requirements within the six (6) month suspension period, such person's limited permit to practice shall be terminated. If a person who has had a limited permit terminated for failure to complete training requirements wishes to reapply for a limited permit, such person shall be required to complete the entire licensure and training procedure starting with application to the board for a limited permit and completion of the initial competency examination with a passing grade, as defined by the board.
- (3) A person applying for licensure as a licensed psychosocial rehabilitation specialist shall submit satisfactory evidence of the following to the board:
 - (a) Graduation from a nationally accredited university with a minimum of a baccalaureate degree in a behavioral science, human science or human services related field;
 - (b) Completion of the community-based psychosocial rehabilitation services training requirements as set forth in subsection (2) of this section; and
 - (c) Completion, with a passing grade as defined by the board, of the final, comprehensive examination as approved by the board; or
 - (d) Status of qualification for licensure pursuant to section 54-4005, Idaho Code.
- 54-4010. LICENSING FEES -- DURATION OF LICENSES. (1) Licensing fees shall be as follows:
 - (a) Each person submitting an application for licensure to practice community-based psychosocial rehabilitation services shall pay an application fee, as determined by the rules of the board, which shall not exceed two hundred fifty dollars ($250) and which shall include the original license fee.
 - (b) Each person licensed to practice community-based psychosocial rehabilitation services shall pay a license renewal fee, not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars ($250) as determined by the rules of the board.
- (2) All licenses issued under the provisions of this chapter shall be subject to annual renewal on the anniversary of the licensee's date of birth and shall expire unless renewed in the manner prescribed by the board regarding applications for renewal, continuing education, and fees. Renewal shall be in accordance with the requirements of section 67-2614, Idaho Code.
- 54-4011. LIMITED PERMITS. (1) A limited permit may be granted to an individual who has completed the education requirements of this chapter and has submitted a board-approved application. The permit shall allow a person to practice community-based psychosocial rehabilitation services subject to supervised practice. This permit shall be valid until the person is issued a license as a psychosocial rehabilitation specialist pursuant to the requirements imposed by this chapter.

- (2) A limited permit may be issued by the board to an applicant who is currently licensed and in good standing to practice in another state and meets the requirements for licensure by endorsement of the other state while the application is being processed by the board.
- (3) The limited permit shall be subject to annual renewal as long as the holder of the limited permit remains a candidate in good standing.
- 54-4012. CODE OF PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT. The board may prepare and/or adopt a code of professional conduct and may revise and amend such code from time to time.
- 54-4013. GROUNDS FOR REFUSAL TO ISSUE, REFUSAL TO RENEW, SUSPENSION OR REVOCATION OF A LICENSE -- PROCEDURE. (1) The board may restrict, refuse to issue, refuse to renew, suspend or revoke any license or limited permit issued pursuant to this chapter, or take other disciplinary action and may impose a fine not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000), upon proof, after a hearing, that the licensed person has engaged in any of the following conduct:
 - (a) Conviction of a felony, or of any offense involving moral turpitude.
 - (b) Habitual drunkenness or addiction to habit-forming drugs, either of which impair the ability to perform his work with or without danger to himself or the public he serves.
 - (c) Gross incompetency.

- (d) For violation of any of the provisions of this chapter or any of the rules promulgated by the board under the authority of this chapter.
- (e) Fraud or deceit in connection with services rendered as a licensed psychosocial rehabilitation specialist or a candidate in good standing or in establishing qualifications for licensure or limited permit pursuant to this chapter.
- (f) Aiding or abetting any person not licensed or qualified under this chapter in the practice of community-based psychosocial rehabilitation services in this state.
- (g) Failing to be licensed or continuing to represent himself as licensed after the expiration of his license.
- (h) Being found guilty of unprofessional conduct by the rules established by the board.
- (i) Failing to comply with any of the provisions of this chapter.
- (2) A license will not be allowed an individual whose license, limited permit, certification or registration has been revoked or suspended in this or any other state and in this or any other related field. Such an individual may not be licensed under this chapter unless the period of revocation or suspension has been completed and the board has conducted a competency review and determined that an acceptable degree of rehabilitation has been accomplished.
- (3) The chief of the bureau of occupational licenses shall have the power to appoint, by an order in writing, any competent person to take testimony who shall have power to administer oaths, issue subpoenas and compel the attendance of witnesses, and the decision of the board shall be based on examination of the testimony taken and the records produced.

- (4) Unless otherwise ordered by the board, any person whose license or limited permit has been revoked may, after the expiration of two (2) years from the date of such revocation, but not before, apply for a new license.
- (5) All proceedings under this section shall be conducted pursuant to chapter 67, title 52, Idaho Code.
- 54-4014. PRIVILEGED COMMUNICATIONS. No person licensed under the provisions of this chapter shall disclose any information he may have acquired from persons consulting him in his professional capacity that was necessary to enable him to render services in his professional capacity to those persons, except:
- (1) With the written consent of that person or, in the case of death or disability, of his own personal representative, other person authorized to sue, or the beneficiary of an insurance policy on his life, health or physical condition;
- (2) That a person licensed under the provisions of this chapter shall not be required to treat as confidential communication that reveals the contemplation or execution of a crime or harmful act;
- (3) When the person is a minor under the laws of this state, and the information acquired by the licensee indicates that the minor was the victim or subject of a crime, the licensee may testify fully in relation thereto upon any examination, trial, or other proceeding in which the commission of such a crime is the subject of the inquiry;
- (4) When the person waives the privilege by bringing charges against the licensee; or
- (5) Communications between any member of an evaluation committee and a respondent as prescribed by section 66-406(9), Idaho Code.
- 54-4015. WHEN LICENSE IS REQUIRED. (1) No person shall engage in the practice of community-based psychosocial rehabilitation services as a candidate in good standing unless he holds a limited permit or as a licensed psychosocial rehabilitation specialist unless he is licensed pursuant to this chapter.
- (2) No person shall be represented as a licensed psychosocial rehabilitation specialist or candidate in good standing by use of the titles community-based psychosocial rehabilitation specialist, candidate in good standing or licensed community-based psychosocial rehabilitation specialist, PSR specialist, licensed PSR specialist or any other title or similar designation that includes such words, or by adding the letters "PSRC" or "LPSRS" unless licensed under the provisions of this chapter.
- (3) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsections (1) and (2) of this section, nothing within this chapter shall be construed to prevent any person from doing work within the standards and ethics of their respective professions.
- 54-4016. ENFORCEMENT. It shall be the right and duty of the attorney general or the prosecuting attorneys of the various counties to represent and appear for the people of this state and the board in all actions and

- proceedings involving any question under this chapter or under any order or act of said board and perform such other services as required.
- 54-4017. PENALTY. Any person who engages in the scope of practice of a psychosocial rehabilitation specialist without a license or an exemption from licensure as provided for by this chapter or the rules of the board shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.
